"Speed" Martin Twirls Great Ball On Sunday

Olympic Speed Merchant Holds Locals to Four Hits in Nine Innings—Chinese Players Fail to Solve Delivery of Winged O Star—Errors Give Visitors Two Runs During Contest—Barker, Riordan and Lai Tin Hit Well

Had "Rowdy" Elliott been seated in the grandstand yesterday afternoon at Athletic Park he would have had one of those famous smiles of his working overtime. Here was an Oakland pitcher who was out there on the mound pitching a heap of stuff that belongs right up in that realm of the fans which is sometimes called the Big Show. Inasmuch as Mr. Harold Elliott was not present, the news will have to be carried to him later.

"Speed" Martin is somewhat of a pitcher as they say around the Call Building and even in the sacred precincts across the bay, and inasmuch as Martin will be one of the Oaks this year, the fans of Honolulu will have an opportunity to watch for results from the pitcher who stopped the home town boys yesterday afternoon. Martin stopped the locals all right. In fact, the only players to touch him were Ayau and Lai Tin, who have been away to finishing school.

Martin's Big Star. The Olympics won the game by a score of 4 to 1. They deserved to win, and Mr. Martin was the big hero of the afternoon, and the Chinese players failed to have a chance with his hooks and crooks working in real C. L. B., which may mean Coast League Style. The Chinese failed to duplicate the stunt.

In the last struggle between these two aggregations, the Chinese had the better of the game in all departments, but they failed yesterday afternoon to hold together, and they also over-looked the fact that hits are sometimes necessary to gain runs. Kan Yen and Yet Chin threw the ball around in one inning which accounted for two runs, but the best that can be said for the locals is that they kept on trying.

Four Innings of Fast Ball. It was a grand game of baseball for four innings. Not a hit, not a run was made off of either Luck Yee or Martin. Then it did happen. The fans were getting ready to sit back in their seats to wait for the extra-inning game when Messrs. Riordan, Barker and Benn, ably assisted by Yen Chin and Kan Yen, upset the game and two runs trickled across the rubber.

The visitors scored one more run in the next inning on hits by Kennedy, Riordan and Barker. Then Ken-ko went out on the mound, and held the visitors to one hit in the last three innings. Many of the fans wished that Kenko had been out there all the time, but any pitcher would have found the going hard against this boy Martin.

Barker Hits Well. The game was devoid of sensational plays that has been noticeable in other games, but the crowd was kept on edge in the early innings because both pitchers were going good. Barker continued to hit, and now leads the visitors by a good margin. Riordan, Barker and Lai Tin each gathered two hits during the afternoon.

The crowd was one of the largest that has been seen at Athletic Park in many moons, which proves conclusively that the Chinese are a great drawing card. A game between these two teams on a Sunday with the score one all would pack the stands once more. Many of the fans believe that the locals will win in the play-off of the third game.

The crowd, as usual, were with the home team, although a few rooted for the Olympics. When Ayau came home with the first run in the seventh, the rosters fell for one minute, and most of the players were given a hand as they came to the plate. Altogether it was an exciting game, and the fans will be anxiously waiting for the contest which will decide which is the better team.

Play By Play. Andrade opened the inning by a walk. Traumatola duplicated the performance, and Kennedy then hit a hot one to Lai Tin, who caught Andrade on the line. Friene hit a fast one to Ayau, who by quick work made a pretty double play, retiring the side, Kai Luke to Cheong. En Sult hit to pitcher, Kai Luke flew out to Andrade, and Ayau ended the inning by flying out to Barker.

Lang Akana captured Riordan's drive after a hard run, and Barker went out, Kai Luke to Cheong. Luck Yee hit to Benn, who was thrown out on an attempted steal. Lai Tin hit a fast one to Benn, who threw the runner out at first. Kan Yen hit to pitcher, and Lang Akana was called out on a third strike.

No Scoring. In the third, McGrath and Martin both hit to pitcher, and Andrade ended the inning by going out, Kai Luke to Cheong. Yen Chin in the last of the third went out, Benn to McGrath; Cheong flew out to Kennedy, and Luck Yee grounded out. Both sides went out in order in the fourth, Traumatola went back to the bench via the home route, Kennedy flew out to Yen Chin, and Friene popped to

OFFICERS BEAT COUNTRY CLUB IN GOLF MATCH

Remarkably Close Score of 13 to 12 Results From Tourney at Schofield

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Feb. 13.—A golf match was played at Schofield Barracks today between a team from the Oahu Country Club and a team composed of officers stationed on Oahu. The result was a victory for the officers by the remarkably close score of 13 to 12.

The weather was ideal golf weather and the course was in excellent condition; and altogether it would be difficult to imagine a much better match from every standpoint than the one played today. Play commenced from No. 1 tee at 10 o'clock a. m., and the entire round of 36 matches was over by 2 p. m. The Oahu Country Club players were the guests of the Schofield Barracks Golf Association for luncheon at the Infantry Mess, and in the afternoon friendly foursomes were arranged and the links were crowded until too dark to play.

A return match is to be played at the Country Club in the near future and the civilians say that the soldier boys had best be prepared for a drubbing as sweet revenge will be the order of the day.

The contestants, with result of the matches, follow:

Capt. Lincoln lost to Hinstead. J. J. Greig won from Armstrong. K. S. Snow won from Angus. C. S. Maude won from Grace. McAndrew won from Dr. High. Snider won from Scratton. Maj. Horn won from Woon. Maj. Redington won from Ewart. White won from Horner. Johnston won from Dr. Shephard. Col. Campbell lost to R. G. Bell. Matthews lost to Noble. Capt. Hicks lost to Morse. Col. Howell lost to B. I. Spalding. Capt. Knight won from Cleveland. Capt. Long won from Lauke. Capt. Carey lost to H. D. Young. Reardon lost to Williamson. Harold lost to P. C. Smith. Bliss lost to J. D. McInerney. Gosner won from E. T. Bishop. Rice lost to P. E. Spalding. Calder won from Judd. Maj. Taysman lost to Lewis. Total—Army 13, Oahu Country Club 12.

handed out Saturday they will be a hard bunch to beat.

Burke is certainly there when it comes to pulling down fouls. In the third frame Saturday he made a difficult catch right up under the shadow of the grandstand of a high foul from Cain's bat.

Souza showed his class as a third sacker on Saturday, when Traumatola hit a hot one into his territory. Souza came in on the run, snapped up the ball and with a perfect peg threw the runner out at first.

The Chinese got more loose playing out of their systems yesterday than they usually are guilty of in a season. It isn't often that a collection of wild throws are pulled off as in the fifth inning.

"Blondy" Williams worked his underhand ball nicely Saturday with the exception that in two or three innings he had trouble getting it to swing over the plate. He twirled a fine game but his team-mates couldn't give him any runs to work on.

The Olympic runs on Saturday were made in the first and fifth frames, in the first they did not start work until two men were out, but they finished strong, Friene's single sending Kennedy, who had reached second on a walk and steal, across the rubber.

In spite of the mishaps of one or two innings, yesterday's was a tight little old ball game. Kenko did well after going on the mound and Luck Lee hadn't pitched so very bad ball prior to quitting. But the Olympic steadiness and pep yesterday was not to be denied.

Big "Lefty" Howedge looks like a very promising youngster. He has the physique for a real pitcher, lots of speed and some pretty fair curves. His outcurve is not hard to time, but his inshoot breaks close to the plate and is difficult to meet. His control on Saturday was as good as could be desired.

In their last two times out, the Olympics have shown all sorts of class in the field and their base running has greatly improved. Yesterday the Chinese, though not scored on for four innings, were almost entirely on the defensive through the aggressive playing of the visitors, and Martin at all times had the Chinese beaten when they came to bat.

Among other things which only happened once in the game Saturday was a double play, which, as far as Pare-sa's aggregation is concerned, was made to order, and showed the speedy

MANY EVENTS IN WATER CARNIVAL SUNDAY AT BEACH

Arrangements for the big Hawaiian water carnival at Waikiki were completed today by W. T. Rawlins, who has been in charge of the preliminary plans for the affair which will be held on Sunday afternoon, February 20. A. L. C. Atkinson, A. G. M. Robertson and James Jaeger have been appointed judges for the various events. Charles P. Chillingworth has been named as the starter, and Eli Crawford will be the clerk of the course. Wall & Dougherty and F. W. Wichman & Company have donated two valuable cups for winners of two events, and other valuable prizes will be awarded to the winners. The events will begin at 1:30 in the afternoon and will continue throughout the day. One of the real Hawaiian features of the day will be a luau which will be cooked on the beach during the Carnival.

It is planned to have an exhibition tennis match in the afternoon on the Moana courts between Griffin and Dawson and Castle and Eklund. The tennis match will take place at 4 o'clock. The program of the day will be as follows:

Six paddle canoe race for men. Four paddle canoe (ancient) race for men. Four paddle canoe (modern) race for men. Four paddle canoe (ancient) race for women. Four paddle canoe (modern) race for women. Sailing canoe race, open to all kinds of canoes. Surf-board paddling race, 150 yards. Surf-riding contest on boards. Surf-riding contest with canoes. The judges will be stationed at the end of Moana pier.

All decisions of the judges will be final and not subject to appeal.

CHAMP WALKER EQUALS HIS PEDESTRIAN RECORD

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 21.—George H. Goulding of Canada, champion walker of the world, equaled his own record for the one-mile indoor walk last night. He made the mile in 6 minutes and 28 seconds. He established the record at Buffalo in 1911.

work of the home team to advantage. Barker reached first on a free pass. Burke hit to Souza, who snapped the ball to Bushnell, putting Barker out and Bushnell in turn passed it along to Filzer and Burke returned to the bench.

The miscue which allowed the Olympics to get a base hit on a high, short fly just back of second didn't look like Lang Akana's fault. Kai Luke thought the ball was far beyond him and quit going after it. Lang came racing in at top speed, but couldn't quite get up. It was simply a case of misjudging a high fly, not interference. But in the other instances the Chinese fielders did interfere. Once Ayau and Yen Chin collided in left, but Ayau held the ball. Another time Kan Yen ran more than half way to third base after a rolling grounder, when Lai Tin, who was speeding in, should have taken it. The consequence was neither got it and the runner reached first.

Natators From Coast Arrive In Honolulu

Miss Frances Cowells and Ludy Langer Greeted By Local Committee on Sierra This Morning—Miss Cowells Already in Love With Climate Here—Langer Will Make an Attempt to Defeat Duke Kahanamoku in Long Distance

Two world's champions met on the Sierra this morning as the liner entered the harbor. One of these champions, Duke Kahanamoku holds the sprint records in swimming, the other, Ludy Langer, has the low marks in the longer swims. These two champions will meet on February 22 once more, and to the winner will go much honor and perhaps new records.

Langer this morning at the dock had heaps of confidence, and although he did not make the statement that he would defeat Duke, the impression was gained that he was confident that he would be returned the winner when the two natators meet on the harbor. Duke was wearing his smile that has made him a favorite through out the world, while Langer wore a solemn look as if his journey here was for business and nothing else; that business being to set Duke back a few marks in the swimming game.

Miss Cowells Here.

W. T. Rawlins, dean of the swimming colony, with Miss Frances Cowells and Ludy Langer, marched down the gangplank as many friends bid the mainland swimmers a welcome to Hawaii. Miss Cowells, who has many Pacific Coast records to her credit, did not talk shop, as she is waiting to find out just what competition she will have to meet here.

N. Peterson, trainer for both Miss Cowells and Ludy Langer, was at the dock and greeted the swimmers, and stated that they both looked in good condition for the coming meet. Peterson will take both swimmers to the harbor where they will be given an opportunity to practise in open water. This will be the first experience of Miss Cowells in open water swimming. Boast for Duke.

Although the mainland natators refused to state that they would win, much discussion was heard around the dock regarding the merits of the two visitors. "There comes Langer. Do you think he will be able to beat Duke?" said one man. "Beat Duke? No I don't think so, and when Duke gets that stroke of his going in the 440 Langer will have to hurry some," said the other. Duke will be a big favorite in this city, if not on the mainland.

The party which included Miss Frances Cowells, Ludy Langer, W. T. Rawlins, Duke Kahanamoku and Ned Steel jumped into a waiting automobile and hurried out to the beach where the visitor will make their home at Huestace Villa. Most of the training for the swims will be done in the harbor, according to the program mapped out by Trainer Peterson.

In Love With Honolulu. "I am in love with the climate of Honolulu already, and I feel that I would like to remain here," said Miss Cowells this morning. "I will do my best to win against the local swimmers, and I know that I will have plenty of hard work to do, as the young ladies of Hawaii have a good reputation, and it will take plenty of hard work to win in the short distances." Miss Cowells was unusually modest about her work in swimming, but stated finally that she would do her best to win the honors on Washington birthday.

The program for this afternoon has been slightly changed, and Miss Cowells and Langer will take a dip in the surf at the beach. The quarters at Huestace Villa will give them both plenty of opportunity to keep in training throughout, and although the real work will be done in the harbor, it is expected that they will do plenty of preliminary work at the beach.

COSMOS TO MEET SERVICE SQUAD TONIGHT AT Y. M.

Y. M. C. A. Bowling League.

	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Honolulu	42	23	14	.667
Service	42	26	16	.619
Colts	42	24	18	.571
P. B. C.	42	19	23	.452
Cosmos	42	18	24	.429
Nationals	42	11	31	.262

This Week's Schedule. Tonight—Cosmos vs. Service. Wednesday—Honolulu vs. Colts. Thursday—P. B. C. vs. Nationals. Friday—Honolulu vs. Fort McDowell (Coast League).

The bowling match this evening between the Cosmos and Service teams will determine whether the Service has a chance to overtake the Honolulu for the championship or not. This is the closing week of the season. The Honolulu open with a lead of two games over the Service and the Colts are too far behind to have a chance for the pennant.

Should Captain Stayton's men win three from the Cosmos tonight, it will force the Honolulu to defeat the Colts Wednesday in order to have a clear title to first place. Verily, there is great excitement in Y. M. C. A. bowling circles this week.

Wednesday's match between the Honolulu and Colts should be a warm affair. These teams are ancient rivals and like to defeat each other regardless of how the percentage table stands.

The P. B. C. and Nationals close the present league on Thursday evening. The Nationals showed good form in their last match and want to make a strong finish. On the other hand, the P. B. C.'s are out to hold the leadership of the second division and will put forth their best efforts Thursday.

On Friday evening Honolulu bowls one of the strong teams of the California League. Fort McDowell will be Honolulu's opponent. The locals must win this match and the remaining three if they are to win the California "Y" League championship. Even then some of the teams must take a fall out of the U. S. Naval Training Station team if the Honolulu are to overtake them.

The real unhappy individual of the whole kit and caboodle is Frank Baker. Every time he thinks about the offer the Feds made him just before the bird of peace got loose he loses his appetite. Think of the Feds offering him a $10,000 bonus to sign a three-year contract calling for a yearly salary of $8000. Baker wanted the earth and wouldn't sign. Now he will play for what Connie Mack is

BRINZA SHOWS UP WELL, THOUGH YORK IS CALLED

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Feb. 12.—In the Regimental League game yesterday F Company, the leaders in the league, attempted to prove to the doubting world that they could win a game without the services of one pitcher named York. They almost did, and they almost did not. Brinza started to pitch against the B Company sluggers and for seven innings he held his opponents possibly not safe, but nearly so. He might have pitched out the game without disaster to his team mates, but F Company was taking no chances and with the bases full and nobody out in the seventh they decided that Brinza's work for the day was over and that it was high time that York stepped into the arena.

This southpaw York did, with the result that after he let two runners in while he was warming up, he struck out seven of the next nine batters and felled the other two out at first. F Company is going to start Brinza in the game on Thursday next against C Company, and as this is their most important game of the season, it shows that they have confidence not only in Brinza but also in their being able to substitute York in a pinch and win out over their nearest opponents. B Company played a good game, but it was not quite good enough and as a result F Company still leads the League with an unbroken string of victories.
